

Summer Guard Training Cut at Camp Grayling

Summer Guard Training at Camp Grayling this year will be cut by about 40 percent from other years, due to the nation's energy crisis.

Governors of Ohio and Indiana have ordered their National Guard to train in their home states this year because of the fuel shortage.

The loss of about 5,000 guardsmen from training here, will not only hit the economy of Grayling, but will effect the entire northern part of the lower peninsula.

Last Friday, Jack Alef, President of the Grayling State Bank, and Earl 'Chum' Longworth, Executive Manager of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce, met in Lansing with Maj. Gen. Clarence Schnipke, Adjutant General, Michigan National Guard; Brig. Gen. John Taylor, Assistant AG; Col. Ralph Phillips, US-PFO; Lt. Col. Phil Morse, Acting Senior Army Advisor, and Craig Ruff, Special Assistant to Governor Milliken, in a concerted effort to get other army components to use the facilities at the camp this summer.

From this meeting, there is a slim possibility of getting small US Army Reserve Units (numbering 500-1000 men) to use Camp Grayling this summer.

Prior to the meeting Friday, Mr. Alef and Mr. Longworth had met once before with the Michigan Guard officers, and a week ago they met with Indiana National Guard officers in Indianapolis, and with Ohio Guard officers in Columbus.

Milltown Festival Planned

We have had numerous expressions of enthusiasm from many people, both in our area and out of the area, on how much they enjoyed the Centennial Celebration held the week of August 6th, 1972. The people of our area had a great feeling of complete harmony and camaraderie while at the same time enjoying and gathering together their resources in a combined endeavor to make our 100th Year a significant one in the history of the region. Further, the living proof of the success of such an event, aside from that mentioned above, is the establishment of the Crawford County Historical Society and the Historical Museum which will open its doors in the Spring of 1974.

We, therefore, have agreed to act as a cohesive vehicle by which we can bring together various organizations, clubs, churches, governmental units, etc. to plan the 1st Annual Milltown Festival to take place annually the 2nd or 3rd full week of each August.

We are directing this letter to as many of those organizations, etc. mentioned above as possible, and if you know or hear of one we have missed, please let us know so we can rectify our oversight...and ask that during this month of March you appoint a representative.

Bus Arrives for Senior Citizens

Lora Gould, Director, Senior Citizens Center, demonstrates the ease and convenience of the hydraulic lift for invalids on the new bus just received by the Center. The bus, on a Ford chassis, with a body by Ward, was driven to Grayling from the Ward plant in Arkansas. The bus will seat 15-20 persons and has room for five wheel chair riders. Each wheel chair position is supplied with tie-downs. Passengers will be able to listen to radio from speakers conveniently located throughout, or to comments on a public address system. The invalid hydraulic lift feature is very important, according to Mrs. Gould. 'Up to now, many of our people who wished to make our trips were unable to because we just had no way to get them into our older bus in their wheelchairs,' she stated. 'Now we can take everyone who wishes to go.' Mrs. Gould added that there is no charge for riding the Senior Citizen's Bus, but that those who are able are requested to make a donation towards upkeep, maintenance, gasoline and insurance. 'Right now, we don't know what these expenses will be annually,' she said, 'but it could be several thousand dollars a year.'

Watching the kids grow

"I don't want the million dollars. I want to go home and watch my kids grow up."

Who said it? Lee Trevino. Jack Nicklaus. John Delorean. They all say it.

I'm always reading about fathers who put family ahead of money. Trevino won't play in the Master's golf tourney this year because he'd rather take his kids fishing. Delorean quit General Motors because board meetings left him no time to give his son piggyback rides in airports.

All of which throbs my conscience. So the other Thursday I left the poolroom early. I could easily have won another $10 from a couple of car salesmen who have been out to lunch since December. But I went home instead.

"Where are the kids?" I asked my wife. "I want to watch them grow."

"They are both about 10 feet tall now," Pat answered. "If they grow much more we will have to move into a cathedral."

"Gee whiz," I said, "Golly. Time flies. I can't remember the last time I saw Ed. He must be a teenager by now. Does he still have red hair?"

"I think so. I bumped into someone in the hall one night last month and he had red hair. I asked him if he was our son but he couldn't answer because he had a jar of pickles and 12 record albums in his mouth."

"How can you be sure he still lives here?" I asked.

"I can tell by the locked doors and the noise and the debris. Whenever he goes into a room he bolts the door behind him. There is usually another boy with him. I think they are having a contest to see who can play a stereo the loudest. Sometimes I knock on the door with a hammer but no one ever answers. They think I am a group named Mad Mom. Last year I won a Grammy Award for best rapping by an individual performer in torment.

"When the music stops, I know they have disappeared. The only noise remaining is the crackling of potato chips swirling to earth. I then climb into the room and spend hours removing sox from pop bottles, pretzels from planters, and basketballs from jockey shorts.

"And that's how I know he still lives here," she said. "If you want to watch him grow you'll have to sneak into his room disguised as a bag of Fritos."

"What about Chris? She's still in high school. Maybe I could watch her grow," I said.

"Chris was home for awhile last week," Pat said, "because she had the flu. She was so weak she was forced to limit her phone calls to 6 hours each. I had to go next door and call her up to take her temperature. I asked her to dry the dishes and she said she couldn't because she was dying and I'd be sorry at her funeral. An hour later she and her boyfriend left town on a toboggan.

By Jim Fitzgerald

"Usually, Chris only comes home to wash her hair or see if it's Christmas yet. Most of the time she is shopping. There's one shopping mall where, if she doesn't show up for a week, they send someone after her. It's either that or lay off 52 clerks. Another shopping center has installed a plaque dedicating a fountain to her in grateful appreciation.

"If you want to watch Chris grow," my wife concluded, "you'll have to sneak into her wallet disguised as a credit card."

"Forget it," I said, "I'm going back to the poolroom."

"Just a minute, I'll go with you," said Mad Mom. †

UNITED REFINING COMPLETES OSCEOLA ACQUISITION

WARREN, Pa.,—United Refining Company (NYSE) announced today that the necessary accounting and legal requirements for the purchase of all the capital stock of Osceola Refining Company, West Branch, Mich., have been met and the transaction, which was effective December 31, 1973, was completed today. The acquisition is being accounted for as a purchase.

The purchase price is $6.3 million payable by the issuance of 51,500 shares of United's common stock, $2,467,625 in cash, and the balance by the issuance of $3,150,000 of United's 8-1/2 per cent subordinated notes due 1975-1979.

Osceola sales and net income in 1973 were $36,401,000 and $2,128,000 respectively. Assuming the acquisition of Osceola had taken place on January 1, 1973, and after pro-forma adjustments for acquisition interest expense and new accounting bases, Osceola's contribution to United's 1973 net income would have been $1,839,000.

Osceola operates a 9,500-barrel-per-day refinery and has an expansion project underway which will raise its capacity to 13,000 barrels per day by late 1974. This company, an established supplier of gasoline and fuel oils to a large part of Michigan, represents an important geographical extension of United's marketing territory and is expected to make a significant contribution to United's future earnings, a spokesman for United stated.

Not many people will ever realize what it takes to change over a paper such as the Avalanche. Almost everything is now done differently, more efficiently, faster and with greater economy. Those two new Compugraphic typesetting machines set type, print it on film, develop it, process it and turn it out almost as fast as Kathie Rutkowski can punch the keys - and that's pretty fast, believe me. Anyway, almost everyone likes the new look of the Avalanche. One woman, however, apparently wasn't too sure when she went to buy one Wednesday. She went to her regular newsstand, looked it all over, returned to the desk, said there weren't any Avalanches. Apparently, the new format and type sort of threw her for a loop. The papers were there; she just didn't recognize them. But, it's still the same old Avalanche, still just as good, only it looks better, and reads easier.

JP

Horror of horrors! Larry Mac won again in the Michigan Lottery. And he doesn't buy more than four tickets a week. What is really news is when he doesn't win. He's not like the fellow I heard about last week who bought one full book of tickets - $125 worth - and never had a winner. Now there is a guy whom Dame Fortune apparently never heard of. In the past year or so, Larry has also won a real fire truck, a canoe and a chain saw. The later was on a one dollar VFW ticket purchased downtown somewhere. Recently, someone bemoaned Larry's luck, saying, 'He probably even won his kids...'

But Larry's luck helps all of us. His interest in the recently-completed possum hunt brightened up a lot of people's dismal February. He was the first to see the potential fundraising possibilities, without the usual 'drive.' He was the most insistent that any money raised be spent locally, and he was also insistent that no one be hurt or offended in any way. And I can't think of anyone involved in the possum hunt who was more pleased than Larry when $225.50 was handed over to Pat Wiseman, head of the local group promoting cure and treatment of multiple sclerosis. Every town needs a Larry McNamara, but few are so fortunate. So if Larry wins in the lottery every week and twice on Sunday, I'm all for it. He certainly deserves it.

JP

I have a new pet peeve. Un-Cola glasses. These oddly-shaped monstrosities, narrow at the top and wide at the bottom, are an absolute horror to wash by hand. I was just doing dishes, and battled diligently with one, then threw the damn thing in the trash. Two more followed. It may be a cute idea to the 7-Up people, but they're something else to me. Someone said a dishwasher does a good job. I wouldn't know, since I don't have an automatic and the other one moved out.

JP

The new Senior Citizen's bus is in, and, friends, it's a real beaut. Everything for the safety and comfort of the customers is installed, including radio and a public address system. The automatic lift for wheel chairs, etc., is convenient and safe. I know; I rode up and down on it. Senior Citizens guiding light, Lora Gould, starting with $11 last February, raised more than $11,000 by Sept. first. All in small amounts. Congratulations, Lora!

Grayling Literature at Travel Shows

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce has announced that the halfway point has been reached in the Participation Program in Travel Shows with East Mich. Tourist Association and the Michigan Tourist Council.

Quantities of the 1974 Brochure 'Grayling Is Pleasure Country' have been distributed at Travel Shows in Cincinnati, Chicago, Columbus, Indianapolis, and the Recreational Camper Show in Detroit.

According to reports by Wayne Clark, EMTA representative, the attendance at the above travel shows was good and the tentative outlook for tourism and resort business looks good at this time. Factors governing the tourist industry are, of course, tightly tied in with the gasoline crisis. If the gasoline situation should remain as it is, or should become better, the outlook will be good for northern Michigan.

'Chum' Longworth, Executive Manager of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce attended a special session in Cadillac with representatives from AAA and they assured him that the entire format for reporting the gasoline situation will be reworked during the next two weeks. From this new form of reporting to the news media will come a much fairer report of the gasoline situation in northern Michigan.

GIRL SCOUT WEEK

They are nearly 4 million strong, and come from every ethnic, racial, economic and cultural group in the nation. They work together, learn together and help make the United States a better place to live. They are the Girl Scouts of the USA, an organization which proudly commemorates its 62nd anniversary during Girl Scout Week, March 10-16, this year.

Since its inception in 1912, Girl Scouting has instilled in its membership the highest ideals of character, service and patriotism. Whether it be through programs of conservation, drug-abuse prevention or a hundred others, the Girl Scouts are always in the forefront, offering a positive and creative outlet for the energies of modern youth.

The 1974 Girl Scout Week theme is, "Wanted-Girl Scout Leaders," which is a concise reminder that Scouting can be brought within reach of all eligible girls only if more adults step forward to help guide the young leaders of tomorrow. As the organization urges, "...be a Girl Scout leader: it means so much to our youth, and so much to all of us."

Swedish Pattern Not For Us

Sweden has often been credited with having an ideal socialized health care system. There are many who advocate adopting the Swedish system in the United States. Before pursuing such an extreme step in any form, the people of our country and responsible lawmakers should scrutinize the Swedish experience in medical socialism.

In the first of a three-part series of articles on Swedish medicine, Lawrence K. Altman, writing in The New York Times, presents a penetrating look at health care delivery in Sweden. The picture is far from reassuring. As a matter of fact, as Mr. Altman titles his article, "Swedish Medicine Is Troubled." He says, "Sweden's medical system, often cited as a paragon of sophisticated, socialized health care in a free enterprise setting, is suffering from serious economic strains." He goes on to describe how, with taxes frozen at the saturation level, "officials are wondering how long Swedish taxpayers can continue to meet the steadily rising costs of their 'cradle-to-grave' health services."

A Swedish family of four earning the equivalent of $12,500 a year pays about 55 percent of its income in national, local, social security and value-added taxes. The Swedish medical system accounts for an ever-greater portion of this tax burden. The costs of Swedish medicine have risen almost ninefold, from $305 million a year in 1960 to $2.77 billion in 1972, and still the problems of obtaining adequate medical care persist. As Mr. Altman observes, "Indeed, many of the complaints that surface in newspapers and private discussions in Stockholm seem familiar to an American—delays in seeing the doctor, insufficient attention to preventive medicine, inadequate facilities for old people and soaring costs."

Even more importantly, under the Swedish system, the doctor-patient relationship has been totally abolished. Rarely does a patient see the same doctor more than twice. He has no choice in the matter, nor does the doctor. Medical care is a production-line proposition, and Swedish physicians are concerned that the present atmosphere in which doctors practice "may eventually undermine the quality of Swedish medicine." All of this is something for Americans to think about in planning for the future of health care in the U.S.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

On Authority in the Home

Perhaps the most common sin against the home is the loss of authority. Husbands and wives often fight like cats and dogs, children ignore and defy the will of both parents, and often the general atmosphere is one of tension, bitterness and confusion.

Many blame urbanization and industrialization for their problems. Others blame the child-centeredness of our society. Some blame materialism, some communism and some hedonism. The excuses range from women's lib to Dr. Spock and we cannot begin to list them all.

All men were created in the image of God and by nature resent the authority of another human being over them. In fact, no man on earth, regardless of his birth, wisdom, power or wealth, has the right to exercise authority over any other human being.

What then is the basis for authority within our society? God alone as creator, sustainer and sovereign ruler of the universe has the right to exercise authority over men. Thou art worthy, O Lord to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. Rev. 4:11. God has delegated His authority through three institutions, the home, the government and the church.

Therefore, the entire family must recognize the authority of God in the home before they can be expected to fully respect this authority. The husband and father must recognize that he has no personal authority, but is only a representative of God and responsible to God for the actions of his entire family.

Eph. 5:23. The wife must recognize her responsibility to submit to the authority of God by accepting her husband's position in the home as head of the family. Eph. 5:22. The children must be taught to respect the authority of God through their parents. Eph. 6:1-3. The authority of God will increase as the Bible is used as the basis for decisions. In this manner, the ideas and the authority for implementation come from God, rather than from Dad and Mom. Discipline will be by corporal punishment as directed in the Bible and not by Dr. Spock. By this we mean that the 'woodshed' will often replace the need for a psychologist.

Some will feel that we are naive for offering God and His Word as the only sure solution to the complex problems of the 20th century home. Let me remind you that the confusing ideas of men have placed us in our present mess.

The divorce rate and juvenile delinquency shall continue to climb until man admits his failure and turns back to the truth of God's Word.

An orderly, happy home is impossible without respect for the authority of Jesus Christ within the home. Pastor Barnett

Fluoride Clinic This Summer

Topical applications of fluoride will again be offered to District Health Department No. 1 area children this summer. The fluoride program which is supervised by the Michigan Department of Public Health, will be made available to preschoolers, second, fifth, and eighth graders and to special cases referred by dentists. The procedure consists of four visits to the fluoride clinic. The child's teeth are cleaned on the first visit and a fluoride solution is applied directly to the surface of the teeth. The fluoride application only is then repeated during the three succeeding visits. This technique has been shown to reduce tooth decay by about forty percent compared with the sixty to sixty-five percent reduction obtained with fluoridated water.

In addition to providing protection against cavities, the program offers valuable dental experience for children with no discomfort. Dental health education by the clinic personnel, including instruction in the proper method of brushing teeth, also is an important part of the program. Parents of eligible children will be notified through the school and be given an opportunity to enroll their children in the program. A small fee of $4.00 is charged to cover the cost of operating the clinic. If a parent cannot afford the fee, they may make arrangements thru their local health department. Parents with preschool children may enroll their children by calling the Health Department.

Mayonnaise And Salad Dressing

Have you ever wondered what the difference is between mayonnaise and salad dressing? Mayonnaise is a stable emulsion of oil droplets in water and it doesn't separate because it is stabilized with egg yolk. Salad dressing contains less oil and a cooked starch paste substitutes for part of the egg.

Nine ways to save Gas and money at home.

CEILING INSULATION

You can save up to 17% on your heating bill by inexpensively adding six inches of ceiling insulation in your attic. Ask about our free do-it-yourself insulation handbook and details of our insulation program. It's part of a Michigan Public Service Commission plan designed to save you Gas and money.

STORMS

Install glass or plastic storms. They rank second only to insulation for cutting down on the use of Natural Gas. You'll save as much as 15% of your heat and increase comfort, too.

WATER HEATER

Several times a year, drain a pail or two of water from the faucet located near the bottom of the tank to remove sediments that would make your Gas burner work harder. Select a tank with the right capacity and recovery rate for your needs. Set the temperature at "normal" or about 140°—you won't waste Gas.

FURNACE THERMOSTAT

Dial down to 68° during the day... 65° at bedtime. And 55° if you're going away for a few days.

FURNACE FILTER

Check once a month during the heating season. If dirty, clean or replace with a new one.

FURNACE CARE

Have your heating system checked by a qualified heating dealer once each year for increased efficiency. And, repair duct leaks with inexpensive duct tape.

CLOTHES DRYER

Clean lint screen before each load. Clogged filters reduce dryer efficiency. Use an exhaust to the outdoors to shorten drying time. Dry full loads. And don't overdry.

RANGE TOP HINTS

When preparing vegetables, use as little water as possible and use a tight-fitting lid. When boiling water, turn the burner control to "simmer" to maintain boiling temperatures. Use pressure cookers. They're real Gas savers.

OVEN TIPS

Don't preheat any longer than necessary. Don't preheat at all for casseroles, meats or similar foods. Prepare entire meals in either the oven or the broiler... not both. Cook in batches... several cakes, pies or loaves of bread together.

February 25, 1974

Dear Mr. Madsen,

What does one do when an emergency situation arises and you can't get service.

Yesterday evening, around 8:30, I discovered a broken heating pipe in one of our motel units. The water was gushing out like a faucet. From the amount of water on the carpet, I could see the break had occurred just a short while before I had discovered it. The plumbing and heating man who has serviced our motel for the past 5 years refused to come out stating he was too tired, having worked hard all day. This very same person has been very peppy to receive the thousands of dollars in business we have given him through the years, (new furnace, new hot water heater, complete plumbing and heating in new house, etc. etc.). It didn't seem to phase him one bit when I told him the room would be submerged in water if he didn't come. He was 'just too tired.' I asked for referral to another heating man. My query was met with a negative response. In desperation, I placed a call to another local heating man. His sarcastic response was something to the effect that 'I had a lot of nerve bothering him in the middle of the night. If my own heating man wouldn't help me, why should he.' My husband was at work when this happened. By the time he was located, and a makeshift clamp put in place, the damage was done. Due to steam and water, the insurance company has estimated the damage thus far at over $500.00. We won't know for at least 3 weeks how much more this figure will exceed the original estimate. We have to wait and see if the furniture, will start spitting, etc. I would like to know when moral responsibility begins to the consumer. The heating man would not come out because he was too tired. His insensitivity caused me a sleepless night of anger and frustration. A thought came to me that perhaps the true reason why he wouldn't come out was the fact that we owed him $50.00. I have not paid this bill because I was waiting for him to come out and make good on a leak which he had repaired three times, previously. I have paid for this leak each time. It is surprising how many times I have closed my eyes and shut my mouth just to get service. Today, a new heating man came to fix the pipe. He was recommended by our insurance company. After repairing the pipe (which didn't take more than one hour) I showed him the troublesome leak. His response was to snort in laughter. Apparently, our original heating man had put on the wrong pipe. I admit my ignorance in such matters. I would not ask my husband to make such repairs as he has a very demanding job outside the motel business. It has been my task to see that these problems are resolved. Believe me, it has been no picnic. I ask again, When does moral responsibility begin to the consumer?

Sincerely,
Joanna Helmick

Dear Whitey:

I would like to take this space to express appreciation on behalf of the citizens of Grayling to some of the people involved in helping to minimize the flood damage caused by unseasonably warm temperatures on March 3, 1974.

These people worked long hours to help others in a true spirit of cooperation. Some of the people helping out were the Grayling Area Volunteer Fire Department, especially Duane Brooks, John Stampfly, Terry Johnson and Robert Golinick. There were also a great number of private citizens who helped in this effort. We would like to extend special thanks to J. Barber, Marilyn Stampfly, Dean Goss and Larry Hunter.

Several members of the City crew were also out working, however, the amount of work to be done could not have been accomplished without the help of the above noted volunteers. To these and others who participated in this effort, thank you on behalf of the citizens of Grayling and City government.

Jerry W. Morford
City Manager

February 27, 1974

Dear Mr. Editor:

I cannot understand why our Chamber of Commerce is trying to convince the Grayling citizens it is vital to our economy that they persuade officials from other states to practice their National Guard operations at Camp Grayling.

Certainly we all agree this will bring money into the Grayling Area; but it is not true that this revenue will be enjoyed only by the local businesses.

Why don't we begin broadening our concerns to a much greater need and future for our town?

Don't you agree creating jobs for our young people so they can return money to their own community is more important than begging for mercy from other states? How many times has our local Chamber got on their knees to the Automotive Industry to expand their operations to our area. Detroit is much closer than Indiana and Ohio.

Could it be that we have to depend solely on out-of-town revenues to support our Community because we have not allowed ourselves to utilize our own abilities. Is it fair for Crawford County taxpayers to pay such a high property tax for education just to see their graduates distributed to other cities and states?

I realize the Grayling Chamber of Commerce has a responsibility to the businessman, but if a good thing fails try something better and keep the working man in mind. He spends more money than any other group.

Sincerely yours,
Tom Broome

Credit Union Meeting Held

The Crawford County Federal Credit Union held its annual meeting at the Grayling American Legion Hall on Saturday February 23 with 100 members present. Following dinner, President Arthur Thayer conducted the business meeting.

Following an introduction of the guest speaker and members of the board of directors, Treasurer Manager Bill Sorenson gave the financial report which showed considerable growth in the past year and a very stable position. President Thayer then explained the expansion of the service area into the four northern township of Rosecommon County and some changes in programs that have come about.

Don Sorenson, meeting arrangements chairman conducted the drawings for door prizes of 3 pound canned hams. The winners were Jim Ott, Norman Feldhauser, Frank Muth, Joyce Hawkins, Marge Drake, Wilson Gierke, Linda Miller, Wayne Fye, Al Schriener, Bruce Nielson, Milton Warren and Mike McNally.

Nominations chairman, Bill Sietsema, conducted the election for three members for the Board of Directors and one member for the Credit Committee all for three-year terms. Ken Moore was re-elected to the Board and Clara Krahner of Rosecommon and Mike Hettlinger of Grayling were elected to replace John Kier and Tom Jeannette. Priscilla Lopinski was re-elected to the Credit Committee.

Guest speaker Richard Voorkees, representative of the Michigan Credit Union League then spoke on the accomplishments of the C.C.F. Credit Union. One big accomplishment was the earning of the Thrift Honor Award from the National Credit Union Administration for the second consecutive year. Only 10% to 14% of all credit unions receive this award yearly but a much smaller percentage earn it twice. Only Charlevoix Community Credit Union in Michigan has earned it three years in a row.

Mr. Sanders, Mr. Clam and Mr. Lund gave a report on the Motel Business. They reported that eight motels in Grayling averaged 49% occupancy during 1973. Their request is that no other motels be allowed to locate in town and that the Zoning Ordinance should be changed to prevent new motels. It is the feeling of these motel owners that they would be unable to compete with a low rental motel. The eight motels used in the occupancy rate survey were Shoppengon, Colonial, AuSable, Triangle, Kay-Lon, River Country, Fay's and the Pine-Aire. Mr. McEvers expressed the feeling that if the Zoning Ordinance were changed to deny admission of new business, the City Government would very possibly be subject to legal proceedings. Mr. Morford explained to the motel representatives the method required to institute a change in the Zoning Ordinance. It was generally agreed that if the Motel Association or others wish a Zoning Ordinance amendment they will contact City Manager who will explain the process and help them draft a petition to Council for consideration at a later meeting.

Mr. Holey appeared to discuss the city rubbish pickup. The charge to city residents at the Township Landfill is $.50 per cubic yard. Mr. Morford has checked with Bernard Fowler, Grayling Township Supervisor, to verify this rate. A lengthy discussion with Mr. Lund and Mr. Sanders followed. Mr. Morford is to notify the motel owners through Steve Sauter when the rubbish contract is to be re-negotiated.

Mr. Richards discussed with Council the Plat of the Industrial Park. This project is almost complete but the remainder will have to wait until the ground thaws. Restrictions concerning industrial waste should be written into the Plat regulations. The construction work at the site will also be completed in the spring. Motion by McEvers, supported by Palmer that the preliminary Plat of the Industrial Park be approved as presented. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, motion carried.

Mr. Morford reported that the Industrial Park will be rated by the Commerce Department. It appears that we will get a Class 'B' rating.

Mr. Morford presented an invoice from Richards, Findorff and Richards in the amount of $173.00 for plat work on Industrial Park. Motion by Golnick, supported by McEvers to approve invoice payment. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, motion carried. Another invoice from Richards, Findorff and Richards for $809.51 for Industrial Park construction engineering was presented. Motion by Golnick, supported by Hanson that the bill be approved for payment. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, motion carried.

Mr. Morford read a letter from Richards, Findorff and Richards to Mr. J. L. Sullivan concerning contracts for the ten and twelve inch sewers which are located on Penn Central right-of-way. Mr. Richards explained what occasioned this correspondence. He will check with Nelson Miles and report back to Council as soon as possible.

Mr. McEvers reported that he has written a letter to the Avalanche concerning the revenues and expenses related to the City Income Tax.

Mr. McEvers reported that charges against Grayling Air are being examined and a decision will be made by the advisory committee regarding future airport operations with a report back to Council at a later meeting.

Mr. McEvers was excused at 9:20 p.m.

Mr. Morford reported on a trip to Lansing to the Department of Natural Resources. Apparently we will have no problem obtaining a 25-year renewable lease for the Roberts Road-County Road site for the new well. Motion by Hanson, supported by Golnick that the City Manager be authorized to negotiate with Layne-Northern for the new well drilling when the property becomes available and to execute the present agreement dated September 19, 1973 if there is no change. Ayes: 4, Nays: 0, Absent: 1, motion carried.

Mr. Richards discussed the surging problem in our water system and noted that a report will be issued as part of the overall water improvement plan now under preparation.

Communications were received from: Consumers Power re: Emergency electrical procedures, District Health Department re: City Landfill Site, Robert Griffin, U. S. Senate, re: Legislation, Michigan Department of Public Health re: Conference Room rental policy, Governor Milliken re: Receipt of Council Resolution, Consumers Power re: Municipal Pumping Contract, City Manager to Richards, Findorff and Richards re: Various projects and Chamber of Commerce re: Letter to Flint Journal.

Discussion was held on water thawing procedures and the use of the municipal water system for grounding. Mr. Sorenson told of some of the problems he has encountered in attempting to thaw water lines. Motion by Hanson, supported by Bovee that the City Manager get additional information as to the State Electrical Code and return to Council. Ayes: 4, Nays: 0, Absent: 1, motion carried.

Mr. Morford reported on the travel expense form which we have purchased.

There will be a meeting of NERP&DC on Friday, March 1, 1974 at which the proposed By-Laws will be discussed. Motion by Bovee, supported by Hanson that Mr. Golnick attend the meeting with Mr. Morford in Mr. McEvers place. Ayes: 4, Nays: 0, Absent: 1, motion carried.

No report on the fire station until after a meeting with Bernard Fowler.

Confirmation has been received from Sargent-Sowell Company on street sign order.

The Compensation Commission will report at the next Council meeting.

Mr. Morford met with Bob Paquette of Scott Engineering on the 1974 Street Program engineering in process. He feels that the storm water problem is the most probable program need in 1974-75 and that the street construction program should be discussed at the next meeting.

An invoice from the MSHD for inspection on the Industrial Park water line was received in amount of $269.24 for Gary Bock of the Alpena office of the Highway Department. Motion by Golnick, supported by Bovee that we request documentation of Mr. Bock's time and related charges and that no further bills will be paid until a final invoice is received. Ayes: 4, Nays: 0, Absent: 1, motion carried.

Motion by Golnick, supported by Palmer that Jerry W. Morford be appointed as Street Administrator for the City of Grayling for 1974-75. Ayes: 4, Nays: 0, Absent: 1, motion carried.

Mr. Morford presented a proposed storm sewer construction program for summer 1974.

The specifications for the new city police car were discussed. The police chief concurs in these specs. and Council concurs with the recommendations. City Manager will finalize specs for next meeting in preparation for bidding for a new car for spring.

Mr. Hanson asked about the possibility of changing the parking regulations on the streets around the middle school during the coming district and regional basketball games. Motion by Hanson, supported by Palmer that the 'No Parking' signs around the middle school be covered during the 1974 basketball tournaments to provide added parking for large number of out of town crowds expected. Ayes: Hanson, Palmer, Nays: Golnick, Bovee, Absent: McEvers, motion failed.

Mr. Golnick asked if it would be possible to have the Smokey the Bear Fire Index Sign in front of the City Hall. Motion by Golnick, supported by Bovee that due to the DNR Fire Station being moved to the Fish Hatchery Site that the City allow the DNR to locate the Fire Index Sign in front of City Hall. Ayes: 4, Nays: 0, Absent: 1, motion carried.

Mr. Hovee asked about violations of the Snowmobile Ordinance. Mr. Morford said that the police are trying to handle this problem.

Mr. Morford reported to Council on the following: Water and sewer rates and private wells, MML Legislative Conference, Downtown progress on off-street parking.

Motion by Hanson supported by Golnick that the meeting be adjourned. Ayes: 4, Nays: 0, Absent: 1, motion carried.

The meeting adjourned at 12:10 a.m.

Jerry W. Morford, City Clerk & Manager

Miss Joseph Listed In New Who's Who

Margaret Joseph, former chairman of the Shorewood, Wisconsin High School mathematics department has been named to the first edition of The World Who's Who of Women, published in Cambridge, England.

Miss Joseph who taught in Shorewood from 1925 until her retirement in 1963 was cited for authoring a number of math textbooks, work on the Wisconsin state curriculum revision committee, her many professional honors and involvement in local civic groups.

In 1959 the Wisconsin Engineering society named her the outstanding mathematics teacher in Wisconsin. She was the only high school teacher listed in Leaders in American Science in 1962-63 all other entries were college and university teachers. In 1966 her name appeared in the Dictionary of International Biography and the 1966-67 edition of Who's Who of American Women also listed her.

Miss Joseph was named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in 1957, one of very few women honored by the society and also one of the few fellows not possessing a doctorate. She holds a master's degree and is actually just a few hours short of a PH.D.

Her textbooks include By-roads of Algebra, 1955; Basic General Math, 1958, revised in 1966; Be a Better Reader (a series for which she did the math sections), 1960 and New Trends in Geometry.

She is a member of Milwaukee Mayor Maier's Beautification committee, the College Endowment Assn., the American Assn. of University Women and Haddasah. She has bachelor and master degrees from the University of Michigan.

Miss Joseph was Valedictorian of the Class of 1915 at Grayling High School. She is an Aunt of Bill Joseph and Mrs.
Leonard Kuibbs.

Card of Thanks

Floral arrangements received from neighbors and The American Legion 106 in memory of Doris Reinhart were greatly appreciated. Many thanks, also, for the delicious luncheon served by Legion Auxiliary for family and friends after the service.

Easter Seal Drive Now On

The Easter Seal Cannisters are in the business places in Grayling, Frederic and Lovells. Put in whatever you can as every bit helps.

The Easter Seal corsages are on sale now. Buy your corsages at the Center or from the Committee of Joan Woodman, More MacNamara, Ruth Caid. There will be volunteers on the streets selling the corsages. The Easter Seal letters are in the mail and each of you should have received a letter. Please sign your return address when you send your donation to the bank.

The coin folders will be in the Elementary, Middle and the High School. Have your children bring them back as soon as possible.

Later on we will have the Turn a Wheel for Easter Seals. More on that later.

In the U.S. today 10 million people suffer from speech and hearing impairments, six million are mentally retarded, two million are victims of stroke and two million have epilepsy. Also 500,000 suffer from multiple Sclerosis. 200,000 from muscular dystrophy and 100,000 from spinal cord injuries. Every year 100,000 babies are born with defects that will force them to use crutches, braces or wheelchairs all of their lives. Find out from your Easter Seal Society what you can do to help in its program of rehabilitation for some of these people.

Ann Giffin and Mitch Linendoll are the two local persons chosen for our Crawford County appeal letters this year. Easter Seals helps all ages. Crippling has no age limit.

Won't you do your part to help handicapped children and adults get 'a fair shake'?
